Complimentary to Miss Rena Eagan.

Miss Ethel Boulware entertained on Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Rena Eagan, whose wedding to Mr. E. V. Swift takes place next Wednesday evening. The pretty Boulware home on Magnolia street was more attractive, with mountain roses and ferns in all apartments. Seven tables were cozily arranged for forty-two. Before playing Mrs. Taylor Ricketts passed a tray containing squares of colored silk, telling the fortunes of the girls. Each color meant a different fortune. The girls blushed, drew, and there was much fun over this. After several games of forty-two, dainty note paper was passed and each girl asked to write a short letter to Miss Margaret Boulware who is off at school. The letters will afford much pleasure to the absent friend. An elegant luncheon was served; on each plate a spray of mountain roses was a souvenir, and on the honoree's plate a bunch of carnations. Mrs. Lee Robinson of Cincinnati was an out-of-town guest.

Complimentary.

Miss Nina Windsor entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Rena Eagan. The wedding colors, blue and white, were pretty everywhere. Cut flowers and ferns were gracefully arranged. A large heart was arranged, from which the young ladies drew the tally cards. The honoree's card was a heart, the others diamonds. This was attractive. Eight tables were filled with players. After the playing an elegant two course luncheon was served.

Bachelor Maids.

Mrs. S. E. Reed entertained the Bachelor Maids Thursday afternoon. Six tables were arranged for five hundred. Flowers were pretty in the parlors. After the enjoyment of several games, luncheon was served. Mrs. H. Byron Mock of Greenville and Mrs. Irma Gooch Collins of Mexico City were out-of-town guests.

Old Fashioned Quilting.

Miss Lou Ellen Shirley entertained the Junior Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church all day Wednesday with a quilting. The quilt is to be sent with other nice things to Buckner's Orphan Home. This was the first cold day of the winter, but the delightful two mile drive was enjoyed, and then on arriving, the cozy open fires. This is a delightful home to visit. At 1 o'clock dinner was announced and an elegant colonial dinner served, everything good to eat "right before you." At 4:30 the quilt was not finished, and some of the party decided to stay all night and finish the day and quilting up, in the good old fashioned way. So all the young men of the neighborhood joined the party and a delightful evening was passed. The following are the members of the Junior Aid:

Miss Isa Nance, president; Miss Pearl Taylor, vice president; Miss Lilla Cutter, secretary; Miss Lou Ellen Shirley, treasurer; Misses Grace Wain, Eddie Morris, Lee Green, Vera Dublin, Annie Britton, Emma Blanton, Bessie Walden.

Swift-Eagan.

Friends in this city are in receipt of cards bearing this pleasing announcement:

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eagan request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter La Rena to Mr. Edward Virginius Swift on the evening of Wednesday, the twenty-fourth of November, one thousand nine hundred and nine at seven o'clock

First Christian Church Palestine, Texas. Mr. Swift is related to the Baumann, Mayo and Webber families, and for several years the groom-elect was a student of the University of Tennessee, from which institution he graduated with highest honors in the law department. His many Knoxville friends extend him hearty congratulations and all good wishes for the future happiness of himself and bride. Daily Journal and Tribune, Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 14, 1909.

Wedding at Nacogdoches.

The wedding of Miss Clytie Harris of Nacogdoches to Mr. Edwin Ezell, formerly of Palestine, has been announced.

The following is from the Nacogdoches Sentinel. The happy pair have hundreds of friends in Palestine, who are interested in them: "The whispered rumors that have been in the air for some time regarding one of our most popular girls found certain confirmation last evening when Mrs. G. A. Blount entertained at a beautifully appointed six o'clock progressive dinner, followed by a dance, in compliment to Miss Clytie Harris.

The doors of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Blount's pretty bungalow are certainly hung on hospitable hinges, and they surpassed even themselves in the beauty of the function with which they complimented Miss Harris. For this interesting dinner, covers were laid for eleven on three tables; at the central one was seated the honoree, Miss Harris, the hostess, Mrs. G. A. Blount, Miss Lorena Middlebrook, the toast-mistress, Misses Lula Harris and Fannie Wade. At the other tables, Mrs. E. C. Branch and Miss Genevieve Jones were the hostesses, the other guests being Misses Margaret Harris, Emma Schmidt, Rachel Zeve, Ella Mae Wade. ***

Parish Tea.

The Parish Tea held in the Parish Hall of the Episcopal church last evening was quite a success. A large attendance of parishioners and friends enjoyed the affair. The hall was decorated by the ladies of the Guilds. Light refreshments were served, and the gentlemen enjoyed a "smoker." The following musical program was rendered:

Song—Miss Marie Grimes. Violin solo—Miss Normington. Vocal solo—Misses Bessie Fox and Nellie Normington. Chorus by the Choir.

Masque Party.

Mrs. Nettie Moore entertained quite a party of young folks last evening in honor of her brother, Louis Sory, of Grapeland, and cousin, Miss Bessie Sory, of Jacksonville. Everybody was en masque, and it was hard to tell who was who. All drew for partners for different games of amusement and then the masques were removed. Quite a jolly evening was passed, and a delicious repast of chocolate and cake served.

Auxiliary of Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary held an important meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Lucius Gooch. "The best use of money in treasury" was discussed. It was decided to replace the worn out books of the library. Five dozen silver knives and forks have recently been purchased by the Auxiliary; these were on display. The ladies decided to give a banquet to the workers of the Red and Blue sides on the evening of Thursday, December 2nd. A liberal donation from each member was given. Press Reporter.

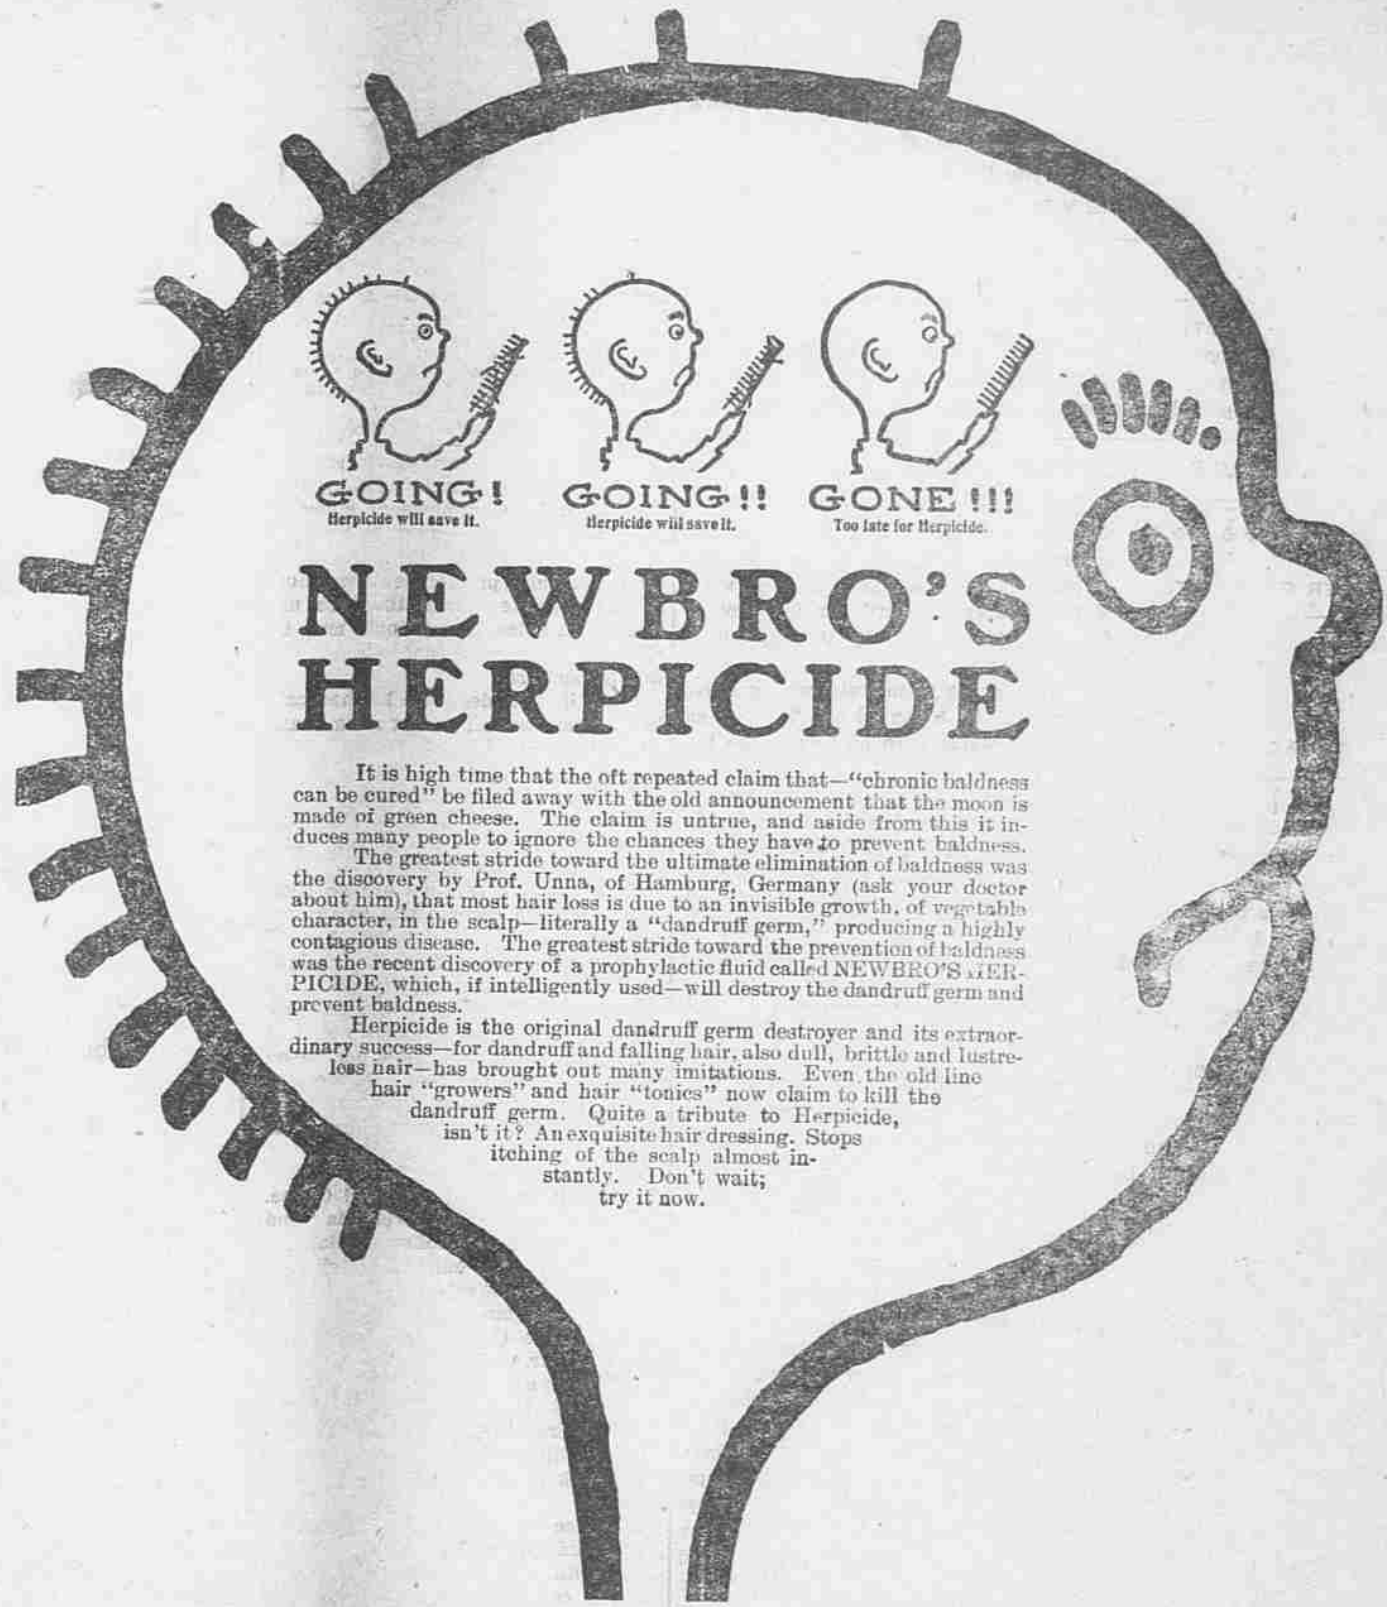

A pretty picture postal comes from Mr. A. L. Jackson, who says he is "now a Georgian on Georgia soil, and will be ready for work Monday." We hate to give Mr. Jackson up, and we know there is no one better than a Texan and no soil equal to Texas. We are looking for him back some day. They all come back.

Mrs. L. T. Berry of Houston is visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. Payne, and Mrs. Ella Dunlop. Mr. Ed Berry will join them tonight.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

It is high time that the oft repeated claim that "chronic baldness can be cured" be filed away with the old announcement that the moon is made of green cheese. The claim is untrue, and aside from this it induces many people to ignore the chances they have to prevent baldness.

The greatest stride toward the ultimate elimination of baldness was the discovery by Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany (ask your doctor about him), that most hair loss is due to an invisible growth, of vegetable character, in the scalp—literally a "dandruff germ," producing a highly contagious disease. The greatest stride toward the prevention of baldness was the recent discovery of a prophylactic fluid called NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, which, if intelligently used—will destroy the dandruff germ and prevent baldness.

Herpicide is the original dandruff germ destroyer and its extraordinary success—for dandruff and falling hair, also dull, brittle and lustreless hair—has brought out many imitations. Even the old line hair "growers" and hair "tonics" now claim to kill the dandruff germ. Quite a tribute to Herpicide, isn't it? An exquisite hair dressing. Stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. Don't wait; try it now.

Send 10 cents in stamps to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept. L, Detroit, Mich., for sample and booklet. One dollar bottles guaranteed. At Drug Stores. When you call for HERPICIDE, do not accept a substitute. Applications at prominent Barber Shops.

SPRINKLERS STARTED

The Dust Devil, After Holding High Carnival For Six Months, Is Once More Put to Flight.

Again the dust devil is put to flight, at least in so far as the business streets are concerned. Today the street sprinklers started work, after a lay-off of six months and three days, because of the water famine.

The lakes are again filling, and the water company declares there is now no danger of a repetition of the water scarcity.

Mr. Richardson, the sprinkler man, says he will soon have the service covering its usual territory.
